Looking for an exciting and entertaining teambuilding experience in the countryside? Try out Couleur Aventure! Located in Amay, between Liège and Huy, this service provider organises bespoke event days bringing people together in a fun and friendly atmosphere.

Couleur Aventure offers a wide range of activities, including high ropes courses, archery, cooperation games, orienteering, bubble football, archery tag and paintball. These different experiences can be tailored to suit your needs.

Although it does not have one designated caterer, this service provider also offers a range of catering options, including buffets, meals, barbecues and a foodtruck.
