The Terres du Val estate offers a unique setting that combines comfort, nature and top-of-the-range services, making it ideal for meetings, seminars and any other professional events. Located in the former Château-Ferme, this venue, which spans more than 300 m², includes four adaptable rooms equipped with the latest technology, which can accommodate up to 200 people.

Teambuilding activities are also offered on site to bolster team unity, including beginner golf classes. The estate also boasts 35 top-end rooms, a recently renovated wellness centre and two restaurants, including one that serves contemporary vegetarian cuisine.
