In Verviers, on the edge of the High Fens, the Van der Valk Hotel Verviers is housed in the former customs station and welcomes you with a warm and friendly atmosphere. The hotel features a brasserie, a restaurant with international flavours called 'L'Entrepôt', a bar and a large south-facing terrace.

Perfectly suited to business events, the hotel has 9 modular rooms that can accommodate up to 300 participants for meetings, seminars or banquets. Easy to access and equipped with a large car park, it combines comfort and convenience.

The hotel is Green Key certified and also offers a fully renovated wellness and fitness area.
